seven days of torrential rains turned much of the northern part of Kyushu—an area about the size of New Jersey — into a vast lake. The hapless Japanese residents fled to any high ground they could find.

Were destroyed or damaged.

Relief was rushed to countless stricken villages and cities. The U. S. Air Force dropped food and clothing to isolated groups of refugees scattered on islets of high ground jutting from the flood.

The marriage of Miss Ethel Atherton of St. Louis and Mr. James Ream, also of St. Louis, formerly of Green Ridge, was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Atherton, in St. Louis on Friday, June 19. Dr. Lampe of the Presbyterian Church performed the double ring ceremony. The only guests were the immediate family and Miss Madge Ream, Marriet Ream and Mrs. Lampe.

A wedding breakfast was served in the dining room of the Gatesworth Hotel, after which Mr. and Mrs. Ream left for a two-week trip to Minnesota.

Mr. Ream is principal of the Wellsmar and Spencer schools of the Wellston system and Miss Atherton was formerly a teacher in the Central School of the same

Bobo Siezes Hubby's Park Avenue Home

NEW YORK P-Barbara (Bobo Rockefeller seized her estranged husband's Park Avenue apartment over the weekend after suddenly arriving here from an Indiana

With her were their 4-year-old son and an unidentified woman friend.

Mrs. Rockefeller, blonde daughter of an immigrant coal miner, moved into the apartment while her husband, Wintrhop Rockefeller, heir to Standard Oil millions, was in Little Rock, Ark.

She talked briefly last night with newsmen by telephone, indicating she was not impressed by a million dollar trust fund being set up by Rockefeller for her, and then announced she would hold a news conference some time today.

The 36-year-old Mrs. Rockefeller and the oil heir were married in a storybook wedding five years ago. They were estranged shortly after the birth of the son, Winthrop Paul, who has since been in the exclusive custody of the mother. Early this month Rockefeller announced he was establishing a million dollar trust fund for his estranged wife. She had complained previously she was broke and living off the charity of friends.

CONCORD INTERNATIONAL, N. Y. - I know from experience just how great a golfer Ben Hogan

In my book he's the best that ever lived, and a lot of people

In the 1948 United States Open at Los Angeles' Riviera Country Club, I was in with 278 and a new record for the tournament. That 278 is still the second best ever shot in the championship, three strokes better than the next.

The trouble with me was that Hogan came in with 276 to account for his first U. S. Open. Now how you gonna beat a man like that?

It was in February of the next year that we had the unique experience of tying in two straight tournaments. First was the Long Beach, Calif., Open with 272, and Ben beating me, 67-69, in the playoff. Then it was the Phoenix Open with 278, and me topping him, 67-70, in the playoff.

It was directly after the Phoenix Open that Hogan, driving to his Fort Worth home, had his almost fatal accident just outside El Paso, when his car collided head on with

I visited the hospital, and said, "Why, you old son of a gun, you got so mad because I beat you, you try to run a Greyhound bus right off the road."

He got a big kick out of that.

Hogan's idea of a fine round is sportsmen, 10-4, to beat an opponent 18 up. Then he's had a great day.

In the semi-finals of the PGA Championship at the Portland, Ore., Golf Club in 1948, Ben beat me, 10 and 9. Now wasn't that a great way to treat a pal?

Underscores Need to Save US Farmers

NEW YORK P - A top Eisenhower administration farm official said today it is more important to save farmers from ruinously low prices than to carry out campaign promises to reduce the government's role in agriculture.

President John H. Davis of the Agriculture Department's $6,750,-000,000 Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) said farmers are in a crisis because of surpluses, de-clining markets and falling in-

This makes it necessary, he said, that the government "put into full gear" the farm programs that exist under present legislation. Even though these laws have "weaknesses," he said, there is not time to change them to meet the present emergency.

Missouri Lags In Its Control Of Brucellosis

The control of brucellosis in Missouri has not kept pace with the nation as a whole as evidenced by a recent comparison made by the Bureau of Animal Industry. They reported, for the year of 1951, a total of 3.1 per cent reactor cattle for the national average as compared to 6.7 per cent reactors for Missouri.

Outside of the fact that Missouri dairymen are risking infection to the public, themselves and their families, they are also suffering severe financial losses. The estimated loss on infected cows is 22 per cent in milk production and about 40 per cent of the calf crop.

Of more immediate concern to Missouri farmers is the fact that a neighboring state has taken steps to restrict the sale of milk from brucellosis infected herds. This has resulted in the passage of ordinances by St. Louis and Kansas City which will require all milk sold in these cities to come from herds under plan A or B of the Bureau of Animal Industry. These ordinances, which take effect in 1955, were designed to prevent the dumping of unacceptable milk from other states into our cities and also to maintain a market for our milk in those states which have made great progress in the control of the disease.

Missouri dairymen are thus confronted with the problem of cleaning up their herds in a comparatively short period of time so that their Grade A markets may be maintained. The ring test appears to be the answer since it provides a very practical way of detecting brucellosis or Bang's disease.

The ring test is quick and economical. It's also simple to perform: and any technician with normal training can conduct the test. The test is made by adding a stained antigen to a small sample of milk. After setting at room temperature for about 11/2 hours, the test is read by noting the color of the cream line.

Since the ring test is not quite as accurate as blood testing, a positive test reading should always be followed by a blood agglutination test. Used in this manner, the ring test can direct our limited veterinary service to sources of infection for blood tests before the disease has a chance to spread.

Summer Heat Can Cut Egg Output, Kill Chickens

Excessive summer heat may not only reduce egg production, but may also cause considerable death loss in your flock says County Agent Merle Vaughan. A large number of birds were lost last year by getting too hot during the hot, dry weather when the tem-perature hovered all around 100. An experiment conducted in California shows that a number of things happen to the flock when the temperature goes from 70 to 100. A rapid drop in feed consumption of 50 to 60 per cent was the first observation. That was followed soon by a corresponding drop in egg production. The water consumption increased 35 per cent, while the egg weight and shell thickness decreased by 10 to 25 per cent.

Much of the trouble that normally goes with hot weather can be prevented by using the following management practices: (1) To maintain food consumption, feed a wet mash at noon in addition to the mash and oyster shell kept before the birds at all times. (2) Increase the amount of watering Get Most Gains space, if necessary. The egg is almost two-thirds water; that is why plenty of clean, fresh water Comfortable Cattle is so necessary for high egg production. COMPLICATION (1): Western wheat states, which have best facilities for handling huge crops, will have a subnorman harvest this year. COMPLICATION (2): Midwestern wheat-growing states, where storage facilities are scarcest, will have a bumper crop. COMPLICATION (3): Market price of wheat is down about half a dollar below the government's support loan price. EFFECT: Many midwestern growers who used to scorn crop loans and sell in the open market are now flocking to the support loan program, lured by that half-a-buck-a-bushel extra. RESULT: Commodity Credit Corporation, up to its eyes in surplus wheat now, will be engulfed by millions of bushels more. A pretty and cool summer replacement for heavy bedspreads can be made from old sheets. The dust ruffle is made of straight strips cut from an old blue sheet and joined together, then pushed on to curtain rods held by brackets on the four corner posts. With a splashy applique to hide a mended tear, another sheet shows up as the coverlet. Plumed motifs salvaged from the remnant that supplied the large applique are tacked to the lampshades.
